 - a. Rebound.
 - b. Jump ball.
 - c. Loose ball after a rebound or jump ball.
2. An official signals that an inbounds player legally touches the ball on a throw-in after it has been released.
3. Only during games utilizing a shot clock that can display tenths of a second and only during the last 59.9 seconds of any period or of any overtime period and with less than 5 seconds on the shot clock, a minimum of .3 seconds must expire from the shot clock and the game clock when the ball is legally touched inbounds.

STOP shot clock when an official's whistle sounds or the official signals to stop the clock.

1. The offense retains possession after the following:

6. There is a technical foul on the offensive team.
7. There is an inadvertent whistle when there is team control.
8. After a simultaneous held ball occurs during a throw-in or after an unsuccessful try that does not contact the rim and the AP arrow favors the team whose try was unsuccessful.
9. After the ball goes out of bounds and was last touched simultaneously by two opponents, both of whom are either in bounds or out of bounds.

FULL RESET to 30 seconds when:

1. There is a change of possession with a new team in control and the ball remains live or when team control is re-established in the backcourt after the team loses control or after a score by the opponent. This includes when one team clearly causes the ball to be out of bounds on a jump ball and the opponent is awarded possession in their backcourt.
2. There is a single personal or technical foul assessed to the defensive team while the offensive team is in control in its backcourt.
3. There is a double foul when only one foul is flagrant, and it is assessed against the offense in its front court.
4. A try/shot (not a pass) hits the rim or flange and control is gained by the non-shooting team.
5. There is a violation (except a kicking or fisting violation or the defense causing the ball to be out of bounds) and the ball is awarded to the defense in the backcourt.
6. There is an inadvertent whistle with no team control and the ball is awarded to either team in its backcourt.
7. There is a held ball or any other situation occurs where the AP arrow determines possession and the arrow favors the defensive team with a throw-in in its backcourt.

RESET to 20 seconds or the time remaining on the shot clock, whichever is greater, when:

1. There is a personal or technical foul committed by the defensive team prior to a try for goal which hits the ring or flange, and the ball is to be inbounded in the front court by the offense.
